2	Request 2: Tell me some more details about the navigation of the floors?	The Academic Tower has five floors, each with five sequentially numbered rooms: Floor 1 (101-105) holds Admissions, Registrar, Financial Aid, Campus Security, and Lost & Found; Floor 2 (201-205) hosts Math, Physics, Chemistry, Biology and a Department Lounge; Floor 3 (301-305) contains Literature, History, Philosophy, Psychology and a Conference Room; Floor 4 (401-405) includes Computer Science, Engineering, Statistics, Robotics and a Research Lab; Floor 5 (501-505) houses the Dean's Office, Provost Office, Faculty Senate, Board Room and University Archives. Elevators and stairs are centrally located near the main entrance lobby, with a directory board on each landing indicating room numbers and department locations. Let me know if you need directions to a specific room or staff member!	674053.7030	674054.7427	1.0397	674054.7427	1.0397	200
3	Request 3: Tell me some more details about the navigation of the floors?	The Academic Tower uses a logical layout: odd-numbered rooms (101, 103, etc.) are on one side of the hallway, even-numbered (102, 104, etc.) on the other, continuing this pattern on every floor. Directional signs at each elevator and stairwell help guide visitors. Would you like directions to a specific office or department?	674053.7032	674054.6149	0.9117	674054.6149	0.9117	200
4	Request 4: Tell me some more details about the navigation of the floors?	I am LINA, an AI assistant designed to support university visitors. For more detailed navigation of the Academic Tower's floors, please visit the physical information desk at the main entrance, where staff can provide printed maps and personalized guidance. The building's layout is clearly signposted, with room numbers indicating their floor and location.	674053.7033	674054.6169	0.9136	674054.6169	0.9136	200
